Well this may interest you! There are many reasons someone will buy a home that needs some TLC or work done to it - it allows you to put your own personal stamp on the character of the property; it is more economical or it may be a "flipper" that you can do up and sell for a profit in a short time-frame. You can instantly modernise and refresh a tired property.

Here's an opportunity to secure a surprisingly large 4 bedroom highset home on approx 607m2 allotment. The hard work has to be done, currently at the stage where it needs plastering/paint, the internal fit-out, plumbing, carpet removal and floors sanded. The electricals have been checked, smoke alarms updated.

The open plan kitchen, dining and lounge are at the heart of this well designed 4 bedroom home, featuring 1 bathroom and downstairs laundry. The large shed to the rear of the property will allow for tools and materials to be
