Don't be a blind Freddy on this one!

What a great little find not only for fishing and boating enthusiasts but for those who wish to find an opportunity to add capital value. Internally the home is somewhat a mismatch of the seventies and requires a little cosmetic prowess, but structurally this highset is sound with a great roof and hardwood flooring. With the added bonus of space this home is substantial with four bedrooms and a massive living area.

Need we mention that we are seconds to the new South Townsville Marina..... You'll want to launch into this one!
