

Harcourts Kingsberry

10 Chapman Street MYSTERTON QLD

2 1 2

This is a home that speaks to the soul with her nostalgic ambience and majestic architecture. Not only notable by street address, her presence has the timeless allure that savvy buyers demand.

Built in 1927 and commandeered during World War II as the Red Cross Tea Rooms for soldiers, her wide and welcoming verandas have always been a happy place. Her solid construction and individuality are truly impressive, Western Australian Jarrah floors, glorious silky oak federation pedestal arch and geometric bay windows are stand out features.

There is no doubt that a lick of paint and an update is required, but what a canvas with the bonus of an 900m2 corner allotment.
