Do you yearn for a home that deviates from the usual? On offer is this distinctly different Riverfront home. While she may be in need of a little tweaking, she has been well and truly cared for by her proud and single owner.

Architecturally designed in the 1970s and solid as a rock, this home offers much more than the norm. The upper level spills onto a private deck where all you will disturb is the native birds, while downstairs you will find the ultimate man-cave with double bay garage and oversized work area.

This home has accommodated tots to teens throughout its long tenure and ensures a sensible and practical family lifestyle with an abundance of storage, additional break away zones and tonnes of green space, not to mention the River at your door-step. Imagine every weekend full of
