This Little Miss is quite the offering for those who seek a true tropical setting and yearn for a grounded approach to easy sustainable living. Our current owners have embraced aquaponics, poultry and fruit trees and this is just a bonus. They have remodelled this lowset character 1930s villa with new kitchen that includes granite benches and a cracker two-way bathroom with oversized bath. Adorable at every turn, this home certainly packs a punch in terms of value and would suit buyers who wish to embrace a country mentality in a City proximate locale.

Features:

- Lowset 1930s home in a City proximate locale
- High ceilings, casement windows and timber flooring
- Concertina windows bring the outdoors in to the newly appointed kitchen which includes granite benchtops, breakfast bar and plenty of storage
