9 Cleveland Terrace NORTH WARD QLD

Nine Cleveland Terrace encompasses world class ocean views and sits atop an unparalleled 3656 meters over two allotments with two street frontages. Originally built for Colonel North and secured by local business visionaries Max and Phoebe Short in 1973, this iconic Californian Bungalow C1936 presents an opportunity rarely offered in the market. The home itself has been beautifully maintained and offers magnificent entertaining spaces both formal and informal, while the veranda and impressive level manicured lawn have hosted many a social occasion. However, accolades must be given to the retention of character detailing, solidarity of construction honouring extensions its incredible positioning encompassing panoramic views of the Pallarenda sweep, Magnetic Island and Castle Hill. This home is truly a rare offering; it lends itself to future development (STCA) or for the next family and generations to follow.
