2 Reynolds Street KIRWAN QLD

Looking for a home with extras like a single bay shed and swimming pool. Whilst the home would benefit from a refurbishment the living area is open plan with two living spaces, front and at the rear. The rear living room has a builtin bar and accesses the shed and pool area.

The main bedroom is generous in size with an ensuite and there is air-conditioning throughout the home. Outside the colourbond shed has an additional awning which doubles the area under roof. The shed is accessed via a roller door and is excellent storage room and/or a workshop for the handy person. There is a child's cubby house and in-ground swimming pool for the children.
