Looking for your new home or solid investment property? Look no further. Centrally located, close to schools, shops and more sits this well loved and maintained home.

Located in a quiet street, just a short stroll to parks, shops and more is this fantastic, low set brick home. The professionally enclosed garage is currently used to operate a successful home based hair salon, but can be used for storage or an extra space for the family to spread out. From the street, you will appreciate the well maintained gardens and lawn kept green year round by the bore. The double carport will keep the vehicles out of the sun and off the street.

Inside, you will find three generous bedrooms, great kitchen with breakfast bar and designated living and dining areas. Light fills the living areas creating a good sense of
