This classic Queenslander in its original state is the perfect opportunity for an entrepreneurial renovator to transform it to a new level. It is prime real estate with great road frontage on Bundock Street. As well as three bedrooms and a study it has a sleepout stretching the length of the front of the house. The property is currently rented on a periodic lease so has holding potential for the strategic investor or developer.

- original kitchen with era character cabinets and styling
- Original timber floors desperately in need of polishing to show their quality
- Concreted underneath the house - good storage and garaging
