When a home is this solid, this large, and in a location this good it might be a lost opportunity to allow the need for a little attention to outweigh the potential.

This large four-bedroom, two-bathroom house is perfect for the first home buyer wanting to create something unique. It would also suit a growing family or an investor wanting to add to their property investment portfolio.

Airconditioned, the home currently exhibits touches of a funky retro vibe revealing its heritage from days gone by. Some original aspects of the house could be retained; however, equally exciting are the endless possibilities a home of this size and structure affords.

The house lends itself to be easily opened up, allowing the kitchen, dining and main living area a voluminous space to
