Walking through the front gate you will feel the welcoming ambience and know that you are walking into something special. A timeless, turn of the century Queenslander flaunting the traditional bull nose roof line, the first impression is a lasting one.

The character has been retained on the inside as well with striking high ceilings, polished timber floors, wooden fretwork and tongue and groove walls flowing throughout the entire home creating a sense of space and warmth.

With split-system air-conditioning throughout, the four bedrooms are ample for accommodating the large family, with the spacious master featuring an en-suite and walk in robe.

The floor plan flows seamlessly from room to room with light-filled, comfortable and inviting living areas surrounded by large windows and an entryway that captures the breeze, minimising the need for air-conditioning and
