Looking to make a change, looking for a rural lifestyle. Tucked away at the end of the court on just over an acre of land you will find this lowset home which feels in a world of its own.

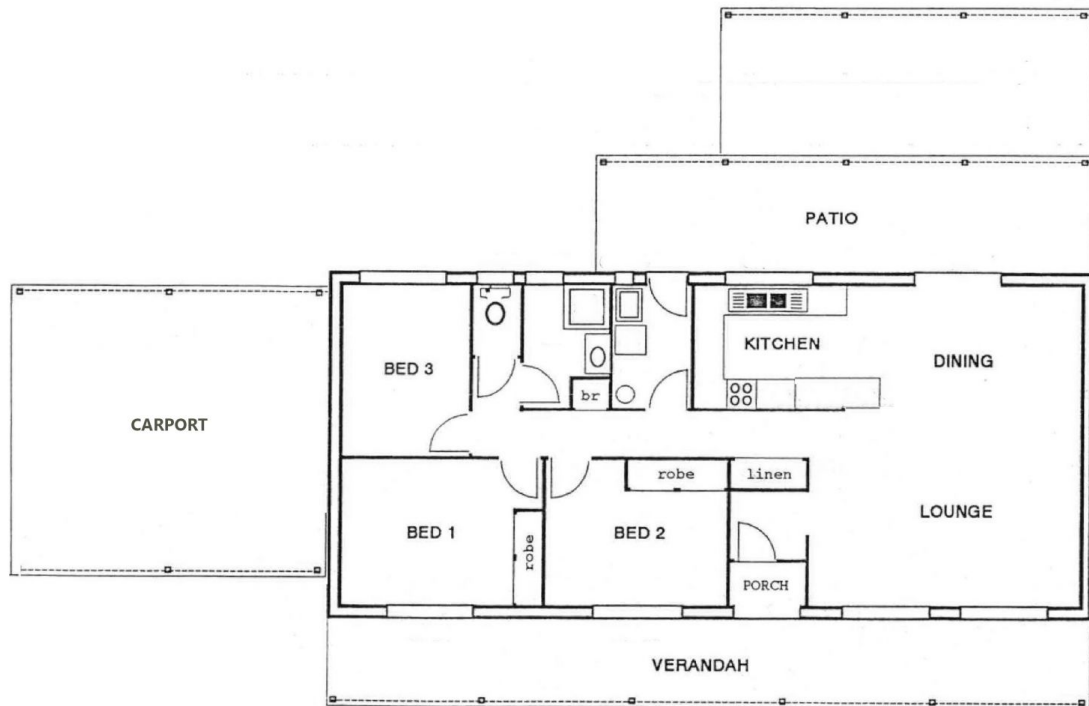

The home has accommodation for two cars at the side of the home and beyond is the American style barn with a mezzanine floor and front and back roller doors. There are also several garden sheds for even more storage. A bore is set up to water the grounds and there are a mixture of fruit trees thriving in the lush environment.

The home offers outdoor living at the back whilst inside offers the modern comforts we all look for. The living is a tiled open plan lounge/dining area which adjoins the timber kitchen. The kitchen was updated some years ago with stone benchtops, a corner pantry and the showpiece of the
