

Harcourts Kingsberry

33 Sycamore Street Pimlico QLD

3 1 1

Discover a Townsville original, built in 1940s this home has been lovingly restored and is now a seamless blend of old and new which must be seen. Care was taken during restoration to ensure the home remains authentic to its past utilising weatherboard on the exterior with the additional of a brand new Colourbond corrugated roof and down to the renewal of the original front fence.

The front patio is the perfect sitting area with view to Castle Hill and the city. Inside the front door and instantly your eye catches the tongue and groove walls and high ceilings, casement windows to the side and the gleaming timber floors. Beyond is the kitchen which offers everything that the budding chef could ever need, with two tone carpentry, island bench workstation, stone bench tops with under counter storage, a four door pantry with customisable shelves and the splashback adds a touch of class.
