If you want the feeling of country living on a large acreage property yet still be only ten minutes drive to the shops and all the facilities then this property could end up being your forever home. The house itself is huge with massive living areas plus a patio large enough for a party and comes with a pool, 80sqm rendered block shed with a shower, toilet and kitchenette meaning it could easily be converted to a granny flat. On top of that there is a huge yard for the kids and dogs to play with no rear neighbours to ensure you have a quiet peaceful lifestyle:

* Entry directly in from the double carport through stunning feature double solid cedar timber doors with dragon handles into a massive foyer area with feature inlaid southern cross star pattern on the floor done in beautiful she oak. This area looks straight through the house, patio and courtyard to the pool beyond and would ideally be the
