Just imagine a property overlooking bushland and only minutes to the CBD. Situated at the end of a no through road this well-presented home exudes warmth and charm. The gorgeous front deck takes advantage of the bushland views. This is where you would spend most of your time chilling with a cuppa or glass of wine. Entertaining can be moved onto the court yard below - ideal place for twilight dining!!

Inside the home you are greeted with polished timber flooring, open plan living which leads onto the front deck. The modern interiors are fresh and inviting and light filled. This functional free flowing layout provides a clever floor plan with modern colour scheme throughout.

The central modern galley style kitchen provides an abundance of cupboard space position perfectly overlooking the combined living and dining area.
