After a refreshed and modern family home in a establish estate.

The low maintenance residence has just been freshly painted inside and features a central kitchen overlooking the combined living/dining area and large covered patio. There is also a separate living room for the whole family to sprawl out. Down the central hallway you'll find three bedrooms, two of which are complete with cooling and built in robes. The master bedroom is positioned at the front of the home and features a walk-through robe and private ensuite.
